

Year2 Winter 2024
SCSI3614 t Literacy Across the Lifespan
Number of credits3 credits
Course TimeMonday 900 t 12:15
Location:SCSD Roof62

Instructors

Laura MacGrath, MSc(A)

laura.macgrath@mcgill.ca

Office: virtual

UNIT THREE: Clinical Experiors Cutting Assessment and Intervention Standards

The speechanguage pathologistlemonstrates the ability to:

- 3.1 Identify individuals requiring speechanguage pathology services:
- 3.1.i Collect and review information from relevant sources (e.g., referrals, reports, consultation) to š Œ u ] v v ] v ] Å ] μ spleechlanguáge pathology assessment.
- 3.2 Plan, conduct, and adjust an assessment:
- 3.2.i Collect and analyze pertinent information prior to the assessment, including intake information an previous reports.
- 3.2.ii Use principles of assessmentdevelop assessment plans (e.g., tools, strategies, resources, environment) that reflect background information about the client (including personal and environment

UNIT FOUR: Clinical Expetisorder-Specific Assessment and Intervention Standards Thespeech

- 6.1.ii Communicate one's professional roles, responsibilities, and scope of practice in collaborative interactions.
- 6.1.iv Participate actively and respectfully in shared responsibilities daoistion making.
- 6.1.v Manage misunderstandings, limitations, and conflicts to enhance collaborative practice.

UNIT EIGHT: Scholarship

The speeclanguage pathologist and audiologist demonstrate the ability to:

COURSE SCHEDULE

EVALUATION

| Component              | TargetedCompetencies | Due Date    | % of Final Grade |
|------------------------|--------------------------|-------------|------------------|
| Assignment             | 2.3, 3.2,4.3,6.1         | January 29  | 15               |
| Assignmen <sub>2</sub> | 3.3,3.5, 4.3,            | February 12 | 15               |

Quiz: literacy